

No Surprises Clause for Memoranda of Understanding

- 13.2 The Parties shall maintain a 'no surprises' policy that keeps one another informed of both potentially contentious issues and issues that may have a significant impact on the current and ongoing operations of the (entity).